

The use of comparative clinical effectiveness information by Medicare

ISSUE: What evidence does Medicare use to make coverage and payment policies?

KEY POINTS: Medicare needs sound evidence to make coverage and payment decisions. Recently, the Congress and CMS have shown interest in improving and expanding the methods and sources of scientific evidence.

ACTION: Commissioners should provide feedback about their interest in examining in greater depth the policy and operational issues raised in these briefing materials.

STAFF CONTACT: Nancy Ray (202-220-3723)